

Joanna Peters

Joanna Peters is the Founding Principal of StratConGlobal, Inc. and brings a proven track record as a global strategic thinker to build outs and turnarounds. Using her law degree and business expertise, she has originated strategic businesses with an investor focus and created an institutional standard for cross border and emerging markets transactions.

Joanna has built and undertaken workarounds in the emerging markets (India, Korea, Taiwan, Indonesia, Vietnam, Latin America, Eastern Europe and the Middle East), driven rollups in Asia and the United States and has acted as advisor and interim COO on new private equity ventures in the offshore oil and gas sectors. Her other activities include strategic positioning, acquisition due diligence, development of new distribution capabilities via strategic alliances and open architecture platforms for investment firms and offshore institutional investors. Prior to StratConGlobal, Joanna built investment businesses in cross border and emerging markets and banking and capital markets activities for diversified financial firms Citi, ABN and AMEX. Joanna's focus is origination, structuring and business management issues.

Joanna is a Best Practice Industry Speaker here and abroad, She participates in a number of industry events including the Mountbatten Institute 2010 Hedge Fund symposium, 2009 Private Equity Summits, the Patton Boggs Women Leadership Forum 2008 and the JP Morgan Women CEO/CFO Leadership and Vision Forum 2006. Prior to that time, she served as an Executive Committee Chair of 100 Women in Hedge Funds for which she Co-Founded and Chaired the Peer Advisory Councils.

Joanna is a Director of Old Asia Hands and a member of The Economic Club of New York, and served on its membership committee. Joanna also served four years on the Board of a New York City magnet school, Stuyvesant High School. She is admitted to the Bar in New York and Australia.

Education

University of London, Masters of Laws

University of Melbourne, Bachelor of Law with Honours