

Vinnie Yu

Vinnie James Yu is a Senior Professional with established network of contacts throughout developed and emerging markets in Asia and in-depth industry experience in banking, risk management, power and energy, telecommunications, transportation, construction, and technology.

Vinnie has advised the governments of Indonesia, Philippines and Taiwan. His transactions expertise are in structured finance, corporate finance, mergers and acquisitions, corporate restructuring, venture capital, and project finance.

For the past ten years, he has been the Managing Director of the Hong Kong Financial Advisory firm and prior to that time, held senior positions at Lehman Brothers in Asia and New York.

Education

Harvard University, John F. Kennedy School of Government - Strategic Negotiation Program
Stanford University, Palo Alto, California – Masters in Business Administration (MBA)
Ateneo de Manila University, Loyola Heights, Quezon City, The Philippines –
Bachelor of Arts Economics, Honorable Mention